

1 amendment is one of those principles founded on moral 2 law, and in the common sense of mankind, and for that 3 reason we should reject the Scanlan amendment and thus 4 make it clear that we are indeed of this time and place,
5 and that we too would do what we can to fulfill the 6 promise of the Declaration of Independence.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other Delegate desire to 8 speak in favor of the amendment?

9 Delegate Gleason.

10 DELEGATE GLEASON: Mr. Chairman, I would suggest 11 to the Delegates assembled that the remarks we have heard
12 from the sponsors of this Committee Amendment are the 13 wool and the warp that political speeches are made of and 14 any remarks that have any effectiveness in the ability to 15 carry out the effect of the policy embodied in this 16 amendment must be done on the legislative floor of the 17 General Assembly or in the Congress of the United States.
18 I think the Delegates will recall during World War II
19 when out on a boat in the Atlantic Ocean Franklin
20 Roosevelt made his great speech in enunciating four 21 freedoms. He said people should have freedom of speech and
